Weddings

Chainbridge Hotel

and Riverside Restaurant

Thank you for your valued enquiry and we are delighted that you have given us the opportunity to outline what we can do to make your special day everything you want it to be and more.

May we first of all congratulate you on your forthcoming marriage - we realise that you will want this special day to provide you with a memorable experience of a lifetime, so we spare no effort to meet your individual requirements. Whatever your budget or requirements we are here to provide a special day just for you.

Unlike most hotels we do not cater for weddings on a production line basis, absolutely everything is planned in detail with you to ensure that your day is tailor-made just for you. Unlike the majority of other hotels we do not add extras on top of goods or services supplied by outside companies, eg. flowers, table decorations, entertainment, etc. so you can have a wedding day at our magnificent riverside hotel for the same cost as an ordinary venue.

We can cater for small intimate wedding breakfasts through to sumptuous banquets for up to 120 guests.

We hold a marriage licence so if you wish, you could also hold the civil marriage at The Chainbridge.

It is our desire to turn your dream of a perfect wedding day into reality. Please feel free to visit the hotel to have a look around and to discuss your requirements.

We promise to turn your special day into the experience of a lifetime and exceed your expectations.

Our private owners are David & Stephanie Booth who live locally and after a life-time in business decided they wanted to bring high standards of service and food to hotels and restaurants in North Wales.

Having private owners makes a big difference as the personal touches and significant investment in the hotel demonstrates.

Please telephone the hotel for an appointment on 01978 860215

We have included in this information pack some sample meal and buffet menus that reflect the most popular choices, but our team of award-winning chefs can produce anything that your heart desires

Weddings

PREPARING FOR YOUR WEDDING

Traditionally the bride's parents host, finance and organise the wedding, although it is now becoming more usual for both sets of parents and the couple themselves to share the work and costs involved. Here is the traditional list of who does what, which will guide you.

Bride

Chooses the type of wedding ceremony and sets the date. Greets her guests at the reception with the groom and both sets of parents.

Chief Bridesmaid

Helps the bride to dress on her wedding day, organises all the other bridesmaids, takes the bride's bouquet during the ceremony, helps the bride to change into her going away outfit and takes care of the bride's wedding dress after the reception.

Usher

Hands out service sheets and shows guests to their seats.

Groom

Pays for the engagement and wedding ring for his bride, all church and licence fees, bride's and bridesmaid's flowers, flowers for both mothers and buttonholes for the men, transport for himself and the best man, gifts for the bridesmaids and best man and the honeymoon. The groom makes a speech at the reception in reply to the bride's father when he thanks the bride's parents and his guests, and proposes the toast to the bridesmaids.

Civil Marriages

Under the Marriage Act 1949, The Chainbridge is an approved premise as a venue for the solemnisation of marriages.

The Civil Marriage Ceremony takes place in the Riverside Suite.

There are certain rules and regulations pertaining to Civil Marriages, a copy is available from the Registrar at Ruthin (Tel 01824 706174)

You will need to book the ceremony directly with the Registrar and they will charge you a standard flat government fee for their services.

We at the Chainbridge pride ourselves on the level of service and the quality of our foods. We want to ensure that your day is the best day of your lives - in every aspect!

Best Man

Liaises with the bride's family to keep up-to-date with all arrangements, arranges the stag night, ensures the groom's going away clothes are at the reception venue, supervises the ushers, drives the groom to the wedding and pays the necessary fees on the grooms behalf, passes the wedding rings during the ceremony and arranges all transport to the reception. At the reception he makes a speech after the groom, thanking the groom for the toast to the bridesmaids. He reads out any messages from absent friends and announces the cutting of the cake, arranges transport for the bride and groom from the reception and finally takes the groom's wedding clothes home.

A Promise is not a promise until it is fulfilled
BUT YOUR WEDDING DAY at The Chainbridge
Will exceed your expectations and we promise!
