PREPARING FOR YOUR WEDDING

Traditionally the bride's parents host, finance and organise the wedding, although it is now becoming more usual for both sets of parents and the couple themselves to share the work and costs involved. Here is the traditional list of who does what, which will guide you.

Bride

Chooses the type of wedding ceremony and sets the date. Greets her guests at the reception with the groom and both sets of parents.

Chief Bridesmaid

Helps the bride to dress on her wedding day, organises all the other bridesmaids, takes the bride's bouquet during the ceremony, helps the bride to change into her going away outfit and takes care of the bride's wedding dress after the reception.

Usher

Hands out service sheets and shows guests to their seats.

Groom

Pays for the engagement and wedding rings for his bride, all church and licence fees, bride's and bridesmaid's flowers, flowers for both mothers and buttonholes for the men, transport for himself and the best man, gifts for the bridesmaids and best man and the honeymoon. The groom makes a speech at the reception in reply to the bride's father when he thanks the bride's parents and his guests, and proposes the toast to the bridesmaids.

Civil Marriages

Under the Marriage Act 1949, The Wild Pheasant is an approved premise as a venue for the solemnisation of marriages.

The Civil Marriage Ceremony takes place in the Yew Tree room suite

Best Man

Liaises with the bride's family to keep up-to-date with all arrangements, arranges the stag night, ensures the groom's going away clothes are at the reception venue, supervises the ushers, drives the groom to the wedding and pays the necessary fees on the groom's behalf, passes the wedding rings during the ceremony and arranges all transport to the reception.

At the reception he makes a speech after the groom, thanking the groom for the toast to the bridesmaids. He reads out any messages from absent friends and announces the cutting of the cake, arranges transport for the bride and groom from the reception and finally takes the groom's wedding clothes home.

There are certain rules and regulations pertaining to Civil Marriages, a copy is available from the Registrar at Ruthin (Tel 01824 706174)

You will need to book the ceremony directly with the Registrar and they will charge you a standard flat government fee for their services.

We at the Wild Pheasant pride ourselves on the level of service and the quality of our foods. We want to ensure that your day is the best day of your lives - in every aspect!

*We greatly appreciated your professional help and attention on our day and we found the Wild Pheasant a wonderful and romantic location for our special wedding,
Many Thanks*

I write with reference to our daughter Natalie's wedding held at the Wild Pheasant on Saturday 21st April.

We wish to thank you for an absolutely excellent day and evening. The food was excellent quality and the service and friendliness of your staff was much appreciated.

In particular we wish to mention Wills, his management before and on the day was absolutely first class and very professional. His co-ordination of the day really did make it very pleasant indeed.

We and some of the guests stayed overnight and we were impressed with the accommodation and breakfast.

Our daughter stayed in the Dee Valley penthouse suite, we have stayed at many hotels in our time including 5 star in London and the penthouse suite exceeded any quality we have ever seen. Our family room was very good too.

We wish you all the very best for the future and thanks again for making our daughter's day very special.

I am writing to say what a wonderful wedding reception we had at the Wild Pheasant, we cannot praise it enough, the staff were helpful and nothing was too much trouble. You certainly did exceed our expectations by a country mile!

*Cheers

Cancelled between 6 to 9 months
50% of the estimated total function cost

Cancelled between 3 to 6 months
75% of the estimated total function cost

Cancelled between 1 to 3 months

4. The Hotel reserves the right to cancel any bookings forthwith and without liability on its part in the event of damage or destruction to the Hotel by fire or other cause, any shortage of labour or food supplies, strikes, lockout or industrial unrest or any other cause beyond the control of the Hotel which shall prevent it from performing its obligation in connection with any booking. In these circumstances every effort will be made to accommodate the booking in another nearby establishment.

5. The Hotel can accept no responsibility for the property of customers or guests. Places for hanging coats are provided for the convenience of the customer and guests, but any deposited in these areas are entirely at the owner's risk and without obligation on the part of the Hotel.

6. No wines or spirits, foods or other consumables may be brought into the hotel premises unless the prior consent of the management has been obtained.

7. Exclusive use of the Hotel may be available upon payment of the appropriate fee, which will include a charge for any bedrooms that are not required or being paid for by guests at the function. If exclusive use is not arranged then the Hotel reserves the right to let non-required bedrooms to external guests and allow external guests access to areas of the Hotel that are not reserved for the function.

8. The customer shall notify the Hotel in writing, not less than one month prior to the date of which the function takes place, of the number of persons who will attend such function and this will be the minimum number charged. In the event of attendance at a function falling below the amount notified to the Hotel, the customer shall pay on these final numbers. If the customer's booking is accepted by the Hotel on the basis that a minimum number will attend the function for which the booking is made, the amount payable by the customer shall be calculated on such minimum numbers or the numbers actually attending whichever is greater.

9. The customer shall notify the Hotel in writing not less than one month prior to the date of the function of all menu selections including any special dietary requirements. Whilst the hotel will make every effort to cater for specific dietary needs, no guarantee can be given to eliminate products or traces of products containing allergens such as nuts etc.

10. The Hotel reserves the right to require payment of a booking fee at any time prior to the holding of a function, the amount of which will be determined by the Hotel. Should the customer fail to pay the booking fee within seven days of being requested to do so, the Hotel may treat the booking as having been cancelled by the customer.

11. The customer shall be responsible for any damage caused to the Hotel or furnishings, utensils or equipment therein by the wilful act or default of the customer, guests and/or employees of the customer and shall pay to the Hotel on demand the amount required to make good or remedy such damage including compensation for loss of business while such damage is being repaired. Should any of the customer's accommodated guests default on payment for their room, the customer will be financially liable for any shortfall.

12. All prices and details are subjects to change without prior notice, although the Hotel will give 30 days notice where possible. All prices include VAT at the prevailing rate unless otherwise specified. No service charges are made, as we prefer to leave this to the customer's discretion.

13. The terms and condition, tariffs and prices quoted are correct at the time of going to print but the Hotel reserves the right to pass on any cost increases or amend the terms and conditions as necessary without prior notice. Where possible the Hotel will notify the customer in writing of any such changes.

14. The Hotel cannot be held responsible for the quality of food if not served at the scheduled time due to late arrival of the customer, or any delay brought about by the customer or outside supplier acting in accordance or otherwise at the customers request.

15. Should the numbers of persons attending a function fall or rise above the original number booking then the Hotel reserve the right to re-locate the event within the hotel to suit the final numbers confirmed.

16. Payment of account in full is due not less than 28 days prior to the event. The Hotel reserves the right to cancel the function if full payment has not been received and funds cleared by the date of the function.
